

Gary Powell Appointed Director of the Ph.D. Program

Storrs, CT (3/8/2006) - Gary Powell, Professor of Management and Ackerman Scholar at the UConn School of Business, has been appointed Director of the Ph.D. Program.

Since coming to UConn in 1976, Powell served as a member of the original committee that proposed the doctoral program and has been a strong advocate for the program since its inception in 1987. From 1991 to present, Gary has served as Ph.D. coordinator and graduate student advisor for the Management Department.

“We are all very excited and looking forward to Gary's leadership,” said Richard N. Dino, Associate Dean of the School of Business.

Powell replaces John Mathieu who directed the program since 2002. Mathieu will return to the faculty to focus on research and the developmental needs of Management Department Ph.D. candidates.
