

Ackerman Scholars

(3/20/2009) - The Dean's Council has reviewed the Ackerman Scholars at the School of Business and made the following awards:

Appointed for the next two years (2000-10 and 2010-11) are:

Sudip Bhattacharjee, OPIM
John Knopf, Finance
Manuel Nunez, OPIM
Zeki Simsek, Management
Mike Willenborg, Accounting

Continuing in their second year are:

Robert Bird, BLAW
Robert Day, OPIM
Lucy Gilson, Management
Girish Punj, Marketing

The Ackerman Scholar award recognizes significant and continuing all round academic productivity among the faculty of the School. It is awarded to faculty who are not already supported by Chair or Professorship appointments. The award is supported by the Ackerman Fund, the School and the departments. The purpose of the Ackerman Fund is to "grant a monetary reward to faculty members who have excelled in classroom teaching, curriculum development, research, and outreach to business and state agencies."