

Objective

To obtain a position as a manufacturing engineer in a team oriented company, utilize problem solving, management, and manufacturing experiences.

Education

University of Connecticut, Storrs, Connecticut December, 2005
Bachelor of Science candidate in Management and Engineering for Manufacturing (MEM) Major
Cumulative Grade Point Average: 3.73 / 4.00

Pertinent Courses

Business	Manufacturing Engineering	General Engineering
Accounting (Managerial/Financial)	Advanced Products & Processes	Mechanics of Materials
Statistics	Production Engineering	Material Science and Engineering
Marketing	Computers in Manufacturing	Electrical Computer Engineering

Awards and Achievements

Dean's List Fall 2001 - Spring 2004
Tau Beta Pi (National Engineering Honor Society), Inducted by rank, top ninth percentile
Engineering Alumni Society Scholarship
Connecticut Innovations Technology Scholarship, Leadership Training Career Track Certified

Related Employment Experience

Trans-Lite, Inc.: Lean Manufacturing Internship, Milford, Connecticut, May - July 2004

- Contributed to a value stream mapping event of electronic sign assembly area.
 - Gathered useful data, such as amount of work in process, distances to next operation, setup times, assisted in the determination of the efficiency of the current process.
 - Created current state and future state maps for the electronic sign assembly area.
- Contributed in a kaizen event focusing on the redesign of the electronic sign assembly layout.
- Created documents for lean events such as inventory databases and manufacturing diagrams.
- Created other databases using cross references to assist in location of tools.

Other Employment Experience

Really Good Stuff Inc.: Packer, Picker, and Kitter. Monroe, Connecticut, July 2000 - January 2003 (Seasonal)

Computer Skills

C, C++, VBA, HTML, PHP, SQL, Process Model, Microsoft Word, Microsoft Excel, Microsoft Power Point

Leadership Experience

Fraternity: Alpha Epsilon Pi, Storrs, Connecticut, Spring 2002 - Fall 2004

- Executive Board Position, House Manager
 - In charge of the selection, pairings, and placement of the individuals for the fraternity house.
 - Ensure the maintenance, cleanliness, and conflict resolution of the fraternity residence.
- Web Manager
 - Motivated, and focused a current website committee, which overall helped to produce an easily updatable, consistent web site. (www.aepiuconn.com)

MEM Society: Storrs, Connecticut, Fall 2002 - Fall 2004

- President
 - Setup a student program review board to the MEM faculty for the continuous improvement of the MEM major.
 - Organized references pertinent to finding job opportunities.

Martial Arts: Shaolin Kempo Karate, 1st Degree Black Belt, Fairfield, Connecticut, 1992 - 2004

- Assistant Instructor