

Stephanie Vornle von Haagenfels

2 Mystic Lane, Westport, CT 06880

Phone: 203-247-1980

Stephanie.Vornle@Uconn.edu

Objective

To be hired as an intern during the summer of 2006 in preparation for future consideration for a position when I graduate in June 2007.

Education

University of Connecticut, Storrs, Connecticut May 2007

B.S. in the School of Engineering and School of Business Administration

Major: Management and Engineering for Manufacturing (MEM)

Current GPA: 3.27/4.00

Relevant Courses

Production Engineering

Financial and Managerial Accounting

Manufacturing Equipment and Lab

Principles of Economics- Intensive

Electrical and Computer Engineering

Material Science and Engineering

Applied Mechanics I & II

Physics for Engineers I & II

Calculus I, II, Multivariable

Management

Mechanics of Materials

Financial Management

Related Experience -

Prime Resources Inc., Bridgeport, CT, 06610 - Engineering Aid, summer 2005.

- Worked on a special project to produce a shipping manual for a 550 item product line supporting $41 million in annual sales and reported to the manager of Industrial Engineering (Contact Joe Nehm (203)592-6485).
- Interfaced with warehouse, production, and office personnel.
- Coordinated with marketing to meet cataloged production deadlines.
- Assembled customer service, webmaster, order entry and production representatives to determine internal customer requirements.
- Designed interactive spreadsheet where package weights could be accurately determined.
- Instructed internal customers on how to use the interactive system.

Non-Related Experience -

Intrawest Corp., Stratton, Vermont – ski instructor for the winters of 2002- 2005.

- Responsible for the safe ski learning experiences of 2 to 15 children at any point in time on the weekend and during holiday periods.

Leadership/Involvement

Management and Engineering for Manufacturing Society, Fall 2004-Present

Builders Beyond Borders, Fall 2002- Spring 2004

Campus Big Buddies Volunteer Group, Fall 2005- Present

Community Youth Group, Fall 2001- Present

Computer/ Language Skills

- Knowledge of Word, Excel, PowerPoint, Explorer, Visio, Office.
- Fluent in English and French with extensive travel in Western Europe.