

MARK J. DEANGELIS

125 MOUNTAIN ST. WILLIMANTIC, CT 06226

(h)(860) 456-1864 mark.deangelis@uconn.edu (w)(860) 486-2487

EXPERIENCE:

Fall 2003 – present ASSISTANT PROFESSOR IN RESIDENCE, BUSINESS LAW
UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT, Storrs, Connecticut

Sp. '98 – Summ. '03 ADJUNCT OR VISITING INSTRUCTOR
UNIVERSITY OF CONNECTICUT, Storrs, Connecticut
WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY, Middletown, Connecticut
TEIKYO POST UNIVERSITY, Waterbury, Connecticut

1981 - 2000 ATTORNEY AT LAW; Nineteen years of legal experience in the private practice of law including:

PUBLICATIONS:

2010 DeAngelis, Mark J., “Rock 'n' Roll 'n' Legal Reasoning: How Popular Music Illustrates the Common Law,” Conference Proceedings of the Academy of Legal Studies in Business

DeAngelis, Mark J., “I'm Sick to Death of ‘Frivolous Lawsuit’ Rhetoric! Who Can I Sue? (A Rubric for Policymakers and For Reformation of the Public Debate),” North East Journal of Legal Studies, Vol. 24, Fall 2010, p.51 - 65

2005 DeAngelis, Mark J., “Social Implications of Tort Reform,” North East Journal of Legal Studies, Vol. 13, Spring 2005, p.1.

PAPERS and CONFERENCE PARTICIPATION:

August 2015 Academy of Legal Studies in Business National Meeting, Philadelphia, PA,
Panel Chair and Presenter, “Reel Cases, Reel People, Not Judge Judy: Movies as Legal Text.”

April 2013 Northeast Academy of Legal Studies in Business Annual Meeting, Lenox, MA,
“Flexible Assignments, Students’ Interests and learning Opportunities”

August 2012 Academy of Legal Studies in Business National Meeting, Richmond, VA,
Panel Chair and Presenter, “Interdisciplinary Learning: Linking Law and the Humanities”

April 2012 Northeast Academy of Legal Studies in Business Annual Meeting, Lenox, MA,
“Building Pedagogical Community on the 21st Century: Promises and Challenges”

August 2010 Academy of Legal Studies in Business National Meeting, Richmond, VA,
“Rock 'n' Roll 'n' Legal Reasoning: How Popular Music Illustrates the Common Law”

April 2010 Northeast Academy of Legal Studies in Business Annual Meeting, Ithaca, NY
“Rock 'n' Roll and Judicial Review: Popular Music and Principles of Common Law”

Panel Discussant: "Innovation in the Classroom"

- November 2009 Northeastern Political Science Association Annual Meeting, Philadelphia, PA,
"Listen to the Rhythm of the Legal System as it Sings: Music as Analogy for the Common Law"
- April 2009 Northeast Academy of Legal Studies in Business Annual Meeting, North Adams, MA
"Law, Lyrics and Learning; The Pedagogical Use of Songs in the Undergraduate Law Classroom"
Panel Discussant: "Technology in the Classroom – Endless Possibilities"
- May 2008 Northeast Academy of Legal Studies in Business Annual Meeting, Cooperstown, NY
"I'm Sick to Death of "Frivolous Lawsuit" Rhetoric! Who Can I Sue? (A Rubric for Policymakers and For Reformation of the Public Debate)"
- April 2007 Northeast Academy of Legal Studies in Business Annual Meeting, Galloway, NJ
"John Grisham's 'The Rainmaker': Popular Culture's Place in the Classroom"
- November 2004 Northeastern Political Science Association Annual Meeting, Boston, MA
"Reforming the Tort System: A Non-Economic Theory"
- May 2004 Northeast Academy of Legal Studies in Business Annual Meeting, West Point, NY
"Social Implications of Tort Reform." Winner of Best Paper Award.
- May 2002 New England Political Science Association Conference, Portland, Maine
"Civil Liberties Restrictions: Little Known but Often Used (Connecticut's 'Ninety-Six Hour Hold' of Abused and Neglected Children and Its Implications for Anti-Terrorist Policymaking)"

CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT:

- Nov. 2010 – present: Facilitator of the Legal Studies Classroom Blog:
<http://legalstudiesclassroom.blogspot.com/> featuring compilations of videos, music, article, movies and popular cultural resources for use in the undergraduate legal studies classroom. (As of May 13, 2013, this blog has earned 88,355 page views - averaging 4,500/month over the last academic year by legal educators and students worldwide.
- Dec. 2010 – present: Facilitator of the ProfBlaw YouTube Channel:
<http://www.youtube.com/user/profblaw?feature=mhum> featuring 29 "Law Lesson" music videos for use in legal studies courses. (As of May 12, 2013, the videos hosted at this channel have earned 125,520 and have been featured on the Contracts Law Professor Blog.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITIONS:

- Summer 2012 Academy of Legal Studies in Business; Finalist in the Charles M. Hewitt Master Teacher Competition, an international competition of the discipline's governing organization
- Spring 2012 University of Connecticut School of Business Administration, Undergraduate Teaching Award for academic year 2010-2011- co-recipient
- March 2009 University of Connecticut Student Board of Governors, Nominated for Educator of the Year

Spring 2006 University of Connecticut School of Business Administration, Undergraduate Teaching Award for academic year 2005-2006

Spring 2004 Northeast Academy of Legal Studies in Business, Best Paper Award,