EDUCATION

- Ph.D., Operations, Information and Decisions (August 2016)
The Wharton School, University of Pennsylvania, Philadelphia, USA
Advisors: Kartik Hosanagar and Christophe Van den Bulte
Committee members: Lorin Hitt and Raghuram Iyengar
- Master of Engineering, Computer Applied Technology (aka Computer Science) (July 2011)
Institute of Automation, Chinese Academy of Sciences, Beijing, China
Advisors: Daniel Zeng and Huimin Zhao
- Bachelor of Science, Applied Physics (minor in Computer Science) (July 2007)
Xi'an Jiaotong University, Xi'an, Shaanxi, China

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

08/2016 – Present: Assistant Professor, School of Business, University of Connecticut

RESEARCH INTERESTS

My research focuses on business analytics in online platforms, such as social media, ecommerce, gig economy, professional service, and paid knowledge sharing platforms. I am also interested in statistical methodologies, including panel count models with sample selection, durational attribution models, and causal mediation models. My past research interests include developing algorithms for recommender systems.

PACKAGES DEVELOPED

- CoxPlus: A fast and highly scalable R package (core code written in C++) estimating Cox model (proportional hazards model) when an event has more than one cause. It also supports random and fixed effects, tied events, and time-varying variables.

Statistical challenges addressed: the attribution problem when an event has more than one cause.

Application: multi-channel advertising, social influence identification, etc.

URL: <https://cran.r-project.org/web/packages/CoxPlus/index.html>

- PanelCount: A fast and scalable R package (speeded up by C++) implementing random effects and/or sample selection models for panel count data.

Statistical challenges addressed: how to deal with self-selection and repeated observations simultaneously in panel count data (can be easily extended to deal with other types of panel data).

Application: marketing campaigns with self-selection and repeated observations.

TEACHING

■ Instructor

Data Science with Python (master level), 2017, 2018

Data Mining and Business Intelligence (master level), 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020

Wharton Tech Camp (PhD level), 2015

■ Teaching Assistant

Data Mining for Business Intelligence (MBA/undergraduate level), 2013 & 2014

Enabling Technologies (MBA level), 2013

Introduction to Operation and Information Management (undergraduate level), 2012 & 2014

RESEARCH GRANTS

National Natural Science Foundation of China, 2019–2023. Theory and Methodology of Just-In-Time-Distribution Service Operations Management under O2O Mode (No. 71831007, 2.3 Million CNY, Participant)

Mack Institute Research Fellowship, 2015

Baker Center PhD Research Grant, 2015

President Gutmann's Leadership Award, 2014

Baker Center PhD Research Grant, 2014

Penn Lauder CIBER PhD Grant Awards, 2013

AWARDS & HONORS

WISE Best Paper Award, 2018

INFORMS Social Media Analytics Student Best Paper Competition Runner-up, 2015

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

■ University Services

Member, Department PhD Qualifying Paper Committee (August 2018 – Present)

Member, Department PhD Recruiting Committee (September 2016 – July 2018, August 2018 – Present)

Member, School Research Computing Committee (August 2018 – July 2019)

Member, MSBAPM Curriculum Committee (September 2016 - Present)

■ Referee for Journals

Management Science, Journal of Marketing Research, Management Information Systems Quarterly, Information Systems Research, IEEE Intelligent Systems, Production and Operations Management, INFORMS Journal on Computing, Journal of Interactive Marketing, ACM Transactions on Management Information Systems, Data Mining and Knowledge Discovery

■ Program Committee Member/Associate Editor/Referee for Conferences

International Conferences on Information Systems (2017, 2018, 2019, 2020)

Conference on Information Systems and Technology (2017, 2018, 2019, 2020)

Workshop on Information Technologies and Systems (2017, 2018, 2019)

PROGRAMMING SKILLS

R, Python, C/C++, Java, Matlab, Stata, SAS, etc.
